

going somewhere was what Ben hoped to do. It fit with her plan to see a veterinarian she knew. Putting Ben in the back in a box called a crate a ride to Dr. Slaton the Vet just could not wait.

Dr. Slaton weighed him and gave him a pill even though little Ben could not sit still.

